

The stark health inequalities in Glasgow are demonstrated by the drop in life expectancy of 2.0 years for males and 1.2 years for females for each station on the railway line between Jordanhill and Bridgeton

